MAKING HIS MARK

When John Miller's job took him from the East End to the West Country, it was a great chance to do things differently. Now, not only does his home showcase his design skills, but he's founded a ground-breaking furniture company to boot

Clockwise from above: John reads on the vintage Knoll sofa; the house, seen from the side garden; the dining room, with Shaper table, Net chairs and Ribbon light

REFLECTED GLORY
The high-gloss finish of the dining table, made in collaboration with a surfboard manufacturer, makes it easy to wipe clean
